ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Tricks of the Trade

Presented by Jeff Murray

Tricks of the Trade is the culmination of 25 years of post-graduate studies and practical learning. It is a spectacular grab-bag of quick and simple tricks that Jeff has learned from some of the best sports medicine doctors, physiotherapists, soft tissue therapists and somatic educators around the world. The focus of the workshop is on breaking the pain cycle and will cover the ankle, shin splints, knee, SIJ, wrist, elbow, shoulder and thoracic pain. Jeff will also be incorporating some of the techniques he has learned from Kenzo Kase, the inventor of kinesio taping.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Jeff originally studied massage therapy at Hunter College of Massage in 1990. On completion of his Diploma of Remedial and Sports Massage, Jeff then went on to complete his Level I Sports Trainers course with the then Sports Medicine Federation of Australia. This was the beginning of his ongoing studies in sports and remedial massage and associated postgraduate courses.

Over the years, Jeff studied many courses but the one course that he kept coming back to was Onsen muscle therapy. Jeff studied many times under Onsen founder, Rich Phaigh, and focused his assessment and treatment protocols on Onsen principles.

In 1996, Jeff became a consultant with the Hunter Academy of Sport, whilst working with many sporting clubs as a Level II Sports Trainer. In 1998 Jeff was appointed the Director of Sports Massage for the Sydney 2000 Olympic and Paralympic Games. At the end of the Games, Jeff was appointed as Massage Coordinator with the NSW Institute of Sport.

After many years of post-graduate study, Jeff is now one of only two Onsen Therapy instructors in Australia. He has a busy practice in Tweed Heads and lectures at Kingscliff TAFE.

Members who do not wish to attend the whole day are warmly invited to attend the AGM only. There is no fee to attend this portion of the program but we do need you to RSVP. Please telephone or email head office if you wish to attend the AGM only.
