ABOUT THE WORKSHOP - Beyond Prone and Supine

Session 1: Get off the table!

11.00am - 1.00pm

Presented by Lisa Fiddes

In this practical session, Lisa will discuss scenarios where massage therapists might be called on to treat without a table and demonstrate treatment protocols using a variety of settings and mediums.

Session 2: Side lying approaches

2.00pm - 4.30pm

Presented by Colin Rossie

In this practical session, Colin will demonstrate a range of options and techniques for working with clients in the much-underused side lying position, incorporating appropriate and secure draping.

PRESENTERS

Lisa Fiddes has been an educator for over ten years. She enjoys studying and, after completing two Bachelors of Health Science (Natural Medicine and Myotherapy), went on to study a Master of Preventive Medicine, a Master of Clinical Research, and a Graduate Certificate in Chronic Condition Management. She is the current convenor for the Victorian Massage and Myotherapy Network, a group of RTO educators who meet regularly to discuss issues and share resources related to training and education within the massage industry.

Colin Rossie is a Certified Advanced Rolfer®, Rolf Movement Integration practitioner, remedial massage therapist and Fascial Fitness instructor. He is a life member of AMT and a foundation member of the Fascia Research Society. In addition to ongoing Rolfing and remedial massage training, his continuing education has included visceral manipulation; neural mobilisation with physiotherapists, osteopaths and Rolfers; Fascial Fitness Training; and Rolf Movement training.
